100th Birthday of Former President Lee Teng-hui

Commemorative Souvenir Sheet

Former President Lee Teng-hui was born on January 15, 1923 and passed away on July 30, 2020. His 100th birthday falls on January 15, 2023. To express gratitude for the first popularly elected president in the nation's history, Chunghwa Post is releasing a souvenir sheet in commemoration. Featuring a stamp with a denomination of NT$28, it has a simple and stately appearance: A block of gold represents the solid and precious stone that President Lee laid for the foundations of democratic society in Taiwan and the deep values of freedom that he embodied. The souvenir sheet is scheduled to be released on January 13, 2023.

Lee served as a minister without portfolio in the Executive Yuan, mayor of Taipei, vice president of the Republic of China during its seventh term, and the ROC president during its seventh, eighth and ninth terms. He initiated many democratic reforms during his presidency, putting Taiwan on the path to becoming a stable constitutional democracy.

This souvenir sheet was designed by Delta Design Corporation and printed by China Color Printing Co., Ltd. in color offset. By-issues including a first-day cover, folders with and without crystal mounts, and a loose-leaf album page will be released along with the stamp and will go on sale on January 11, 2023. A pre-cancelled FDC with a souvenir sheet will go on sale on January 13, 2023, the stamp's date of issuance. For further information, please refer to the upcoming Philatelic Bulletin or Postal Service Today.
