Effective October 1, 2023, the Emergency Situation Surcharge fee will cease to be imposed.

As a response to the gradual alleviation of the COVID-19 pandemic, Chunghwa Post is taking the initiative to halt the collection of the Emergency Situation Surcharge for international airmail starting October 1, 2023.

With this suspension in place, international postal rates will revert to the pre-pandemic standard, ensuring a cost-effective choice among international logistics services. We remain committed to offering comprehensive, equitable, and reasonable international postal services and encourage the public to take full advantage of these offerings
